SCHOOL SONG

Our hearts are with you Rossford High
We'll stand by you, until we die!
We love our dear Maroon and Gray,
We'll cheer tomorrow as today.
Ever loyal we will be,
Striving till eternity.
We will never be untrue,
Oh! Rossford High, we sing to you.

DEDICATORIAL EDITORIAL

During this unpredictable year of 1945, we as Seniors respectfully and humbly dedicate this 18th issue of the Maroon and Gray to all servicemen and women who are graduates of this school.

These boys and girls are stationed in many different sections of the world fighting for an everlasting peace, so that generations to come will not have to endure the hardships of war.

We are proud that we were able to meet the many obstacles that confronted us in putting out this annual. The classes of 1943 and 1944 were not as fortunate as we were in publishing an annual because the conditions at that time were more critical.

It is our wish that in the forthcoming years as we open this book, it will serve as a prompter for many cherished memories.

SALUTE

While those charged with responsibilities incident to operation of Rossford Public Schools have in the past seized every suitable opportunity to stress the merits of the forward look, I feel impelled to emulate your laudable example in the dedication of this space as tribute to uniformed RHS alumni now serving in every theatre of World War II.

We honor them for having put into actual practice the principles of unselfish sacrificial living with courage and devotion. Everywhere they are acquitting themselves nobly and we, who on bygone commencement days sent them forth with congratulations and prayer, feel very proud. We serve them best and honor them most worthily by upholding, nurturing, and living the ideals for which America stands.

Anxiously we await the happy day of their return, when unitedly we can resume the forward march toward realization of every proper goal set before us.

Meanwhile, we greet and salute the former RHS students who unhesitatingly heeded their country's summons to the colors, and, as in panoramic procession they now file before the mind's eye, we solemnly ponder what might have been if they and their comrades had been less brave.

Henry Werner, Jr.

SUPERINTENDENT

APPRECIATION

Appreciation is a prerequisite of the achievement of the highest success. It is indispensable to the development and symmetry of the other virtue. To be the recipient of kindness and assistance without grateful emotion is weakness, if not meanness. To respond promptly to personal favors with an expression of appreciation is strength and nobleness.

PRINCIPAL

TO OUR FORMER STUDENTS IN THE ARMED SERVICE

We of Rossford High School are justly proud of you, our young men and women, who have been called to serve your country in this great conflict.

Your sacrifice and service so exceeds the contribution of those of us who are permitted to stay at home that we express our great appreciation for what you are doing.

Our hope is that you may soon be with us again to make Rossford High a better place to live.

"THE 45th's VICTORY OVER IGNORANCE"

In the years from nineteen thirty-nine to forty-one, the "45th Division" was planning the great attack to conquer knowledge.

We landed on the Freshman coast 70 strong, with "Major General John Andryc," in command. Our advancement was slow but steady. Most of our time was spent in drilling and there was little time for recreation.

After taking over the Freshman coast we advanced to the Sophomore lines. The opposition was heavy and pupils were lost. Our ranks were depleted to 49 strong. We drew back to Perrysburg to replenish our funds by giving a skating drive. "Major-General John Andryc," was given a promotion to "Lieutenant-General." The WAC department gave a show, entitled "All's Fair," to help boost the morale of the "45th Division."

As Sophomores with great offensive action, we roused out the Juniors and took over their position. The going was tough, but the "Fighting 45th" held on. A campaign was held to add to the funds, and Mr. Wolfe's "company" was in the lead with Mr. Butt's "company" close behind. After some grave battles were fought on the Basket Ball court by the Bulldogs, recreation was sought through dancing. New ideas were tried out by "Major-General John Cervenec," who was elected to command, but he was called to active duty before the year was over and then Second-inCommand Eugene Dubelsig took his place at the head of the Division. A Peace Conference was held with the Seniors at the Secor, where they officially transferred their powers as Seniors to the "45th" without opposition.

In the final stage of conquest "Lieutenant-General John Andryc," again took the lead to the final goal. With steady advancement toward gaining knowledge, the Army of 45 strong set the date for the Declaration of our Independence. This great day was May 23, 1945. All members of the army were presented with diplomas for gallant action in battle.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Fifteen percent of the students of the Senior Class and five per cent of the Junior Class, outstanding for their scholarship, character, leadership, and service, are selected by a faculty committee and compose the National Honor Society. The privilege of membership in this organization is the climax of a senior's high school life. This coveted honor is something every student strives to attain.

THE SEASON'S OUTCOME

Coach O. Allen's Bulldogs opened their football season Sept. 15, 1945 by holding a Perrysburg eleven to a 0-0 tie. The following week at Maumee the Bulldogs met a rugged Panther aggregation and were setback 7-0. The Bulldogs traveled to Port Clinton Sept. 29, to meet a favored Clinton team and were defeated 21-6. The next game at Whitmer, Rossford played hard and well, The result 6-6. Traveling to Tiffin, Oct. 26, the fellows made an impressive showing but lost 13-0.

The Bulldogs then gave the loyal fans a treat by defeating Holland 12-0 on their field. Rossford played their first home game by downing Gibsonburg to the tune of 26-0. The season ended with Rossford losing a hard fought game in the final minutes to Perrysburg 6-0.

The next season will see a veteran Rossford backfield in action but the loss of 5 seniors on the line will seriously handicap the team.

BASKETBALL RESULTS

This season was one of the best in a long time for Coach G. Wolfe, his team having won 13 out of 15 games.

The high school basketball career of five varsity players closes with the season. They are as follows: John Krupa, John Andryc, Len Zuchowski, Joe Cincala, and Ed Bohaczenko.

Their loss will be felt but it will be compensated by five returning lettermen: John Hreben, Joe Knurek, Mike Knorek, Eugene Proch, and George Vascik.

Having completed their schedule, the boys were upset in the Class A tournament by Central, 39-31.

The basketball schedule of the varsity was as follows:

Rossford 22	Macomber 34	Rossford 66	Lake 25
Rossford 42	Whitmer 17	Rossford 49	Central 27
Rossford 31	P-Burg 27	Rossford 52	Maumee 28

TOUGH AS A RANGER!

Glass "can take it" like a Ranger. That's why it is as popular with young people as with their parents. A table top of colorful Vitrolite glass, for example, has the same resistance to stains, marking, burns, acids and other detrimental agencies as walls of this material in bathrooms, kitchens and lavatories.

The future of glass and youth is unfenced. Plans for the use of glass products in that entrancing era beyond the peace are breath-taking and revolutionary. Boys and girls and glass will take long strides together in the America of Tomorrow.

International
MINERALS and CHEMICALS serve you in many ways
through industry and agriculture

Many of our Rossford and Toledo friends, who know about our activities at the Rossford plant, have asked us what else the company produces.

Minerals and chemicals which are essential to the production of America's abundance of healthful, delicious foods are supplied to industry and agriculture by International from its mines and plants throughout the country. In the raw materials produced by International, there are also many chemicals of great importance to manufacturers of drugs and a wide variety of products prepared for your health, comfort and convenience.

International minerals and chemicals include: Mono Sodium Glutamate and Glutamic Acid. Potash and Phosphate for Industrial chemicals and fertilizers. High-analysis Fertilizers for larger yields of quality crops. Chemicals: Potassium Chlorate, Silica Gel, Epsom Salt, Defluorinated Phosphate, Sodium Silico-Fluoride, Sulphuric Acid and others.
